

Grandparents and the Elderly: Grace and Mission

Presenters Ron and Mavis Pirola

Discussion Questions:

How can you give the gift of time? In what ways can you listen, affirm, teach and explore the world together with your grandchildren, nephews, nieces, etc?

The gift of memories is important.

How do you share the gift of memories with your family and the next generation?

Sharing lessons of life, resilience, and offering perspective.

Have you shared your own disappointments, hurts and failures with the children in your life when they needed reassurance and comforting?

Through suffering, loneliness, and sadness we can always pray.

Do you pray for family members by name? Did you know your small acts of kindness can be part of your prayer life? What are some ways you can help to pass on the faith to grandchildren, nephews, nieces, etc?
